As discussed I'll even
it out

You transfered the wrong amount, yours
is 15733 in bulk some.
I'm doing line by line
transfers

Transfer another 6250
to you should even total and leave 991.53
in account if you wish
but I rather we zero it out and even it out.

Transfer 6,745.76
to will even out the remains 991.53
divided by 2

I just equalized the 4K for each of us against what Jerry transferred today. The rate of attrition is about 5K a week per person rounded to nearest dollar

Doing a final verification with squires before placing order. Make sure he doesn't pull a fast one. Did u ever discuss price with him? These are what 1cent leads?

Why would any team win coin toss and defer the ball?

5:11 PM

I am surprised the bills
didn't up last Monday
like they decided to play in the rain today

6:15 PM

I didn't check the bank
today. Move another 1000 a piece and put
Nick Dues and Larrys
Dues per transaction
in the memo section

Also moving 18233 of my dues from our psf account to keep things cleaner. I don't want to sit every day and do micro accounting. Let's each take our dues out of there proportionately. If you wish to as well

6:05 PM

I have Jerry taking 18233 with today's included

Sounds about right. I got it all written down.

I see you did only 1 transfer for 2500. So everything we are talking is after Sba funds

Yes

You have 15733 due to you I have 18233 due to me.

But he took a third of whatever closings we had

I've attributed total withdrawals and total electronic transfers
